

Insects, Allard's Ground Cricket - multiple individuals singing in daytime, late August, other insects, some birds and wind in background

Insects, Carolina Ground Cricket - two individuals singing in daytime, late July, various birds in background

Insects, mixed chorus - huge group of field crickets and ground crickets singing together in evening, late August, some crows in background

Insects, mixed chorus - multiple field crickets, ground crickets and katydids calling during daytime, early August, birds and wind in background

Insects, mixed chorus - multiple katydids and crickets calling at night, early August, light breeze in background

Insects, Northern Bush Katydid - single individual singing at night, late August, ground crickets in background

Insects, Oblong-Winged Katydid - two individuals singing at night, late August, other insects in background

Insects, Red-Legged Grasshopper - three individuals singing in daytime, early August, various other insects, birds and wind in background

Insects, Roesel's Katydid - three individuals singing in daytime, late July, various birds and wind in background

Insects, Short-Winged Meadow Katydid - small group singing during sunny afternoon, early September, background includes multiple birds and crickets, wind, a horse and a dog-day cicada

Insects, Slender Meadow Katydid - close-up on single individual, late afternoon, late July, birds and wind in background

Insects, Snowy Tree Cricket - small group singing in city alley at night, early August, some occasional cars passing by in background

Insects, Spring Field Cricket - multiple individuals singing in evening, early June, wind in background

Insects, Sword-Bearing Conehead Katydid - large group singing at night with close-up on two individuals, early September, some other insects calling and mosquitoes in background